

POWER BINGO

Instructions: Print this page on card stock and cut these cards out. They should be placed in a box or basket and drawn out one at a time. When the privilege is called out, those who agree with the statement, place a marker on their POWER BINGO card on the square represented by the letter and number listed.

P-4: When I go out to eat, I don't think about whether I'll be able to use the restroom or not.	P-9: I can access all of the online videos shared by friends on social media.
P-7: When I am out in public people speak directly to me rather than speaking about me to the person who is with me.	P-8: Most people I meet talk to me pretty freely without worry about saying the "wrong thing".
P-13: I can get out of my car and enter a building without having people assume I need help doing so.	O-26: When I attend a workshop, I can assume the handouts and materials will be accessible to me.

O-30: I can easily buy postcards, greeting cards, dolls, and magazines featuring people of my disability status.	O-23: If I move to a new neighborhood, I can be pretty sure that my neighbors will be neutral or pleasant toward me.
O- 20: The majority of elected officials in the country where I live are of my disability status.	O-18: When I studied history in high school, people of my disability status were well represented.
W-43: I never had the experience of feeling awkward while someone told a joke about people of my disability status.	W-41: I can go to a doctor without concern about whether the equipment they use will be accessible to me.
W-31: My parents received a college degree.	W-34: I've never been told by a service provider that we don't serve people like you.

E-59: I was never told that I might want to reconsider a career choice I was thinking of pursuing because people like me are not likely to succeed in that area.	E-55: When I apply for a job, I don't have to worry about whether or not to disclose my disability status.
E- 50: I've never had anyone ask me if I can or how I have sex.	E-60: I can vote without being concerned about access.
E-52: When I get asked to be on a committee, I can assume it is because of my strengths and potential contributions rather than because they needed someone of my disability status.	R-70: I can excel at something without being told I'm an inspiration.
R-68: I've never had anyone question whether I can/should be a parent.	R-63: I've never been told how expensive I am to include.

R- 75: If I choose to worship I have several choices in my community.

R-69: When I moved into the dorm in college, I didn't have concerns about whether my roommate would feel okay about rooming with me based on my disability status.
